We can prepare for Mass by silently recollecting ourselves in God's presence. Before receiving Holy Communion, if we are ready, we are asked to make some preparatory act of reverence such as a genuflection or bow; this should be made while the person in front of us is receiving. It is also good practice to spend some time in thanksgiving after receiving when we return to our places.

November Lists and the Month of the Holy Souls: Each day in November the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is offered for the names we place on our November lists. Sacred Scripture says 'It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins' (2 Maccabees 12:46). Blank November lists can found at the back of the church on which you write the names of those deceased you wish remembered at Holy Mass during the month of the Holy Souls, then place into the envelope provided with your offering and place it in the box. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says regarding purgatory: This teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore [Judas Maccabeus] made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin." From the beginning the Church has honoured the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God. The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead. CCC1032.
